

The Elms
Chapel Thornton
W<sup>h</sup> Leeds. 4 Aug<sup>t</sup> 1867.

My dear friend

I was greatly pleased to receive your kind & affectionate letter of the 25th Mth, assuring me & our friends you would visit Leeds very shortly - being now determining the time,
as several of our friends want to know so as to be able to make the necessary preparations for a public meeting &c.

Josephine Thornton

I gave you kind letters to Mr. Wilson Amherst Dread, & he said, he was going from home shortly, but whenever he was,
he would return to Leeds when you come to see us, & shake you by the hand once more, & talk over past days, &c &c. - If I have the opportunity, I will yet know, if you or friend Mr. Rawson
of Sheffield is yet living & tell you when you visit us; if not, I am sure my friend the Rev. I L. H. is

Short of Sheffields will be glad to see you there & aid you in pointing out old friends & the so you know, <sup>the Rev. Dr.</sup>

Lothrop of Boston

M. S. he has been preaching in Leeds,

today & giving our people in Hill Hill & Chapel

a great treat; he is a most eloquent & touching preacher. I met him at dinner last evening

I had a very interesting chat with him, about

America, & her late great struggle to be - I soon found he had not been of your old Society, ~~that~~ he knew you well, & Wendell Phillips also to -

Yours very truly,
& faithfully

Joseph Lupton
